CHARLES DAVIS

Wins Great Junior Sagamore's Stump Over all Opposition

Second Time Honors Have Come to Tchoupitoulas Tribe within Four Years

Another Great Sagamore's session of the Great Council of Kentucky Red Men has been held and the work of the past year reported, new officers elected and the chiefs returned again to scout the forest for more palaces that they may be captured.

Last Tuesday and Wednesday, May the 9th and 10th, the Great Council here was killed in the charming city of Owensboro, where about 500 chiefs trailed to be present and participate in the proceedings.

The reports from the various committees show the order to be in a healthy and flourishing condition, and this session was pronounced one of the best ever held within the Reservation of Kentucky.

When the time came for election of Great Chiefs the name of Charles Davis of this city, was presented, together with that of Henry Yunker of Louisville, and John Sexton, of Richmond. The race was a spirited one, but Davis proved an easy winner on the first ballot, having received two more votes than both of his opponents.

This was indeed a victory for him, a victory for Tchoupitoulas Tribe and a victory for the Mountains, as it was the first time he had ever permitted his name to be voted for, he stands today the undefeated and unconquered Chief.

It was a victory for Tchoupitoulas Tribe because only four years ago W. H. McDonald, also a member of this tribe, won the same honors and it is unprecedented that the honors should twice go to a tribe within so short a time.

It is a victory for the Mountains because it is another officer elected in the Great Council from the Mountains, thus demonstrating that the Mountains are awake and enthusiastic in the work of Redmanship.

We wish to congratulate the Great Council in the wisdom it displayed in selecting for this honored and honorable position Bro. Davis. He is thoroughly alive to its duties, and no man will do more toward the upbuilding of Redmanship than will he. The position is worthily bestowed.

The Great Sagamore's Stump is now filled by W. A. Crader of Louisville, while the Great Senior Sagamore's stump is occupied by R. T. Crowe of LaGrange.

Frank L. Smith, of Lexington, was re-elected Great Chief of Records and T. Waile Stratton, of Cromwell was elected Great Keeper of Wampum.

J. M. Wilson Tchoupitoulas Tribe is Chairman of the Board of Appeals while R. W. Cole is a member of the Finance Committee. Thus, it will be seen that Tchoupitoulas has surely received her full share of honors.

The next Great Sagamore's session will be held at Bowling Green on the second Tuesday in May, 1912, when the Great Chiefs will again assemble around the Council Fire to hear and give words of wisdom.

Resolutions of the Whitley County Bar

Whereas, it has been prominently mentioned from authoritative sources that the Hon. C. S. Wilson, a member of this bar, might be or become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky, and whereas, the said Wilson has, as yet, made no public announcement of his intentions in this regard, now, we, the Whitley County Bar, meeting regularly and called, do pass the following resolutions, to wit:

Be it resolved that we endorse the action of the members of the bar who have urged the Hon. C. S. Wilson to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals because of the excellent service he has rendered the State and the Bar of the State generally during the term since he has been chief deputy under the present clerk of said Kentucky Court of Appeals, in that he has always been kind, courteous, accommodating and painstaking in all matters relating to his office.

Be it further resolved that we endorse the honesty, integrity and ability of the Hon. C. S. Wilson as a man and a citizen of which Whitley County is proud.

Be it further resolved that we believe that the Hon. C. S. Wilson has been instrumental in shaping some of the principles of the Republican party by his writings and utterances on the unfair method of distorting the State into the various districts as they exist at the present time, and upon these facts all Republicans unite in assuring him of the undivided support for the nomination should he decide to enter the race.

H. C. GILLES, Chairman.
C. H. SMITH, Secretary.
Williamsburg, Ky., May 15, 1911.

PLAN TO GO

Baraca-Philathea National Convention at Kansas City June 10-15. Be One of the Two Thousand Delegates.

This is to be the greatest Convention ever held by the Baracas and Philatheas. Thousands are now planning to go to Kansas City June 10th. If you can't go, help send a representative. See that you reach and president go. Pay their expenses if necessary.

In 1910 there were 33 delegates from Kentucky at the Asheville Convention. Last year there were about 30 at Jamestown. This year Kentucky will surely have at least fifty at Kansas City.

Every church in the Commonwealth that has the honor of a Baraca or Philathea class should see that some of their young men and women go to this Convention. You can't eliminate the good that man grow out of their attending.

With best wishes and hoping to meet you at the Convention, I am,
Yours to serve,
LUTHER REYNOLDS, Gen. Sec.
Mayville, Ky.

42nd Annual Meeting of the K. S. D. A.

The Annual Meeting of the Kentucky State Dental Association will be held in Owensboro, May 23, 24 and 25, promises to be of more than usual interest to dentists of this and adjoining States on account of the numerous new methods and appliances which will be exhibited there.

Dentistry, unlike many professions, cannot be learned altogether from books and magazines, and consequently it is almost obligatory for the progressive dentist to attend these meetings. Several dentists from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will give clinics; in fact everything indicates that this will be the largest and best meeting ever held in Kentucky.

All ethical members of the profession are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

THOMAS B. MCGREGOR.

Who is making a winning race for the nomination for Attorney General upon the Republican State ticket. He is a lawyer of ability and experience and is assistant to Attorney General James Breathitt for the last three and a half years has made an enviable record. He is an aggressive, progressive Republican and one of the best campaigners in the State. His nomination would be of great help to the State ticket in making the character of fight that the party will be called upon to make in the coming campaign.

FOR ADDAMS

Editor of the Leitchfield Gazette Comes out for Addams for Governor

(From Leitchfield Gazette)

There are two aspirants for the nomination for Governor. What eight men who have the welfare of their party at heart to do as between these two men? It seems to be conceded that they are both good men and that either one would make a good Governor. Which one of these men will make the stronger race before the people next November? Let us be candid with each other. It is a fact recognized all over the State that it is very doubtful whether Mr. McCreary can be elected. You may inquire from almost any part of the State and you will hear of large numbers of Democrats who are swearing they will not vote for him. By no means is this opposition confined to Catholics alone but is found among all others. Then, the Republicans are evidently of the opinion that McCreary is going to get the nomination and that they can beat him. No other explanation can be made of the fact that so many Republicans are seeking gubernatorial nomination at the hands of that party, a nomination which has usually gone begging in this State. They see at least a line chance to be elected. If the head of the Democratic ticket is defeated it is likely the entire ticket will be. Why should we jeopardize the ticket next fall in the interest of any man? Why should we even put the ticket in the least danger? Can anybody give a good reason for such a course? The political trend is toward the Democratic party all over the country. Anybody we may nominate, who is acceptable to the majority of the Democrats, can be elected Governor of Kentucky next November. Nobody seems to have anything to say against Hon. William Addams. He does not belong to any faction. He has no enemies. He is in the prime of life. There is no reason why every Democrat in the State would not vote for him. His nomination assures the success of the Democratic ticket.

Here are two horses entered for a race, one of them has three legs and the other is as sound as a dollar. As a wise man on which one would you bet your money?

It is the duty of the Democrats to nominate as their candidate for Governor the man who can carry the strongest race.

The editor of this paper has been writing against Mr. McCreary. He is writing in the interest of the Democratic party in Kentucky. We put it in the doubtful column where it belongs so easily placed where it should be no doubt.

AN INTELLIGENT COW.

If one believes what he reads, they have a wonderful cow at Chas. McElroy. A girl twelve years old told into an old barn house, well in the field. Her family thought her drowned in the river, and for three days were dragging for her body. She cried for help, of course, but was unheard save by an old cow. After looking down the well for a few minutes and considering the case, the cow turned around, dropped her tail down the well, and when it was grabbed hold of she pulled her up, out, safe and sound, but a bit fatigued. Every farmer ought to keep a cow like that around his farm. In case the barn got afire during the night she could milk herself and put the flames out.

The Needful.

"Scientists have succeeded in compressing a square meal into a cake the size of a soda cracker."
"That's fine, but it is not exactly what the world is crying for."
"Then what is?"
"The world wants the price of a square meal compressed into a disc the size of a quarter."

THE DEEPEST WATER.

It is in the North Pacific Ocean and Goes Down 5,269 Fathoms.

The ocean has been sounded in nearly all directions with modern appliances, and these soundings show that the floor of the Pacific consists of vast, undulating plains lying at an average depth of about two thousand fathoms beneath the surface of the waves. In some places huge ridges and abysses rise from these submerged plains to within a few hundred fathoms of the sea surface, or they may rise above the surface as volcanic islands and coral atolls.

The greatest depth yet sounded is in the North Pacific, where the Challenger found a depth of 5,269 fathoms. It is about 1,000 feet from the surface to the bottom of the water.

The Challenger was drawn to the bottom, on the 23rd of August, 1876, when the cable was broken. The Challenger was then at a depth of 5,269 fathoms. The Challenger was then at a depth of 5,269 fathoms.

MOVING PICTURES.

And the Shilling That Sir John Herschel Set Spinning.

It would appear that the modern "photo play," as the moving picture people now call their output, owes its origin to a simple experiment conducted in the year 1826, when Charles Nicéphore Niépce, a Frenchman, showed his friend, Louis J. M. de la Roche, how he would show both sides of a shilling at once.

Niepce had a shilling in his pocket, and he was holding it in his right hand. He was looking at it, and he was showing it to his friend.
